About Pacific Horticulture

A strong voice for West Coast gardeners since 1976, Pacific Horticulture Society (PHS) is a community of avid gardeners who are passionate about exploring the many facets of garden making and creating nature-friendly environments.

Our quarterly publication, Pacific Horticulture, is widely recognized for its engaging stories, beautiful photographs, and horticultural accuracy. We are proud to have become a trusted resource for West Coast gardeners, designers, and horticulturists.

Discover more than 1,000 archived Pacific Horticulture stories about gardens and gardeners online at www.pacifichorticulture.org.
